THE SENIOR TRIP

On May 25, forty-seven happy and excited Seniors accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ewing left on a five day trip to Niagara Falls, New York City, and Washington D.C. Leaving by train from Detroit Wednesday afternoon we arrived at Niagara Falls the same evening. A few hours were spent sightseeing there. On Thursday morning we arrived at the famous Grand Central Station in New York. There a bus was waiting to take us to the Hotel New Yorker. After checking into the hotel we had free time the rest of the morning. Many went shopping while others visited the Empire State Building. In the afternoon a thirty-five mile sight seeing cruise was taken around Manhattan Island in a sight seeing yacht. Among the many things seen on this cruise were the Statue of Liberty, Brooklyn Navy Yards, United Nations Building and the palisades. That evening we dined at one of the world's most famous night-clubs, the Copacabana. Friday morning we went on another tour of upper and lower Manhattan. Among the various things seen on this tour were Grant's Tomb, The Little Church around the Corner, The Bowery, Harlem, Wall Street, Central Park, Chinatown, Stork Club, The Cathedral of St. John the Divine, and Macys. In the afternoon we boarded the train for Washington D.C. Upon arrival in Washington a bus took us to the Lee House. That evening we dined at the Casino Royal, Washington's finest night club. Later we enjoyed a bus tour of the illuminated buildings of the city. We also visited the Lincoln Memorial, the Congressional Library, Archives Building, and the National Airport. Wednesday morning we spent at the Capitol Building and the White House. That afternoon we crossed over the Potomac River into Virginia to Arlington National Cemetery. Here we visited the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and witnessed the changing of the Guard. Then we went a beautiful drive to Alexandria, Virginia, one of the oldest settlements in the United States, and then visited Mont Vernon, home of George and Martha Washington. Our tour ended at the Union Station Depot where we boarded the train to bring us back to Michigan. We arrived in Detroit Sunday morning at 8:00 A.M. There a Mayville bus picked us up and we returned home at 11:30 A.M. We were a group of tired but happy people, from a trip none of us will ever forget.
